TRICOR PACIFIC CAPITAL INC.
1996

Tricor Pacific Capital (“Tricor”) was established as a private equity firm investing both its own and institutional funds in mid-market companies across North America. Under the leadership of Rod Senft, Tricor managed four separate funds, with total committed capital of C$1.2 billion. Notable of these funds is Tricor Pacific Capital Inc. (Fund IV) - a C$555 million fund of committed capital raised from institutional investors in 2006. It’s under this fund that Golden Boy Foods was acquired.

Tricor acquires Golden Boy Foods
2007-2014

Golden Boy Foods is an independent private label food manufacturer with six manufacturing locations in USA and Canada, in which Rod Senft acted as Chairman, Richard Harris as President & CEO, Trevor Johnstone as Board Director, and Derek Senft as a resource to the company. Its main business is the supply of nut butter, snacking and baking nut products to 20 of the top 30 largest retailers in North America. Tricor made a majority buy-out investment through Tricor Pacific Capital Fund IV in 2007 and sold the business in 2014 to publicly-listed Post Holdings Inc.
